

Intersect Studio is looking for:

Interior Designer. Creative Implementer. Design Leader.

Motivated senior designer passionate about creating great places for people, eager to be an integral part of the growth and success of an emerging design firm.

Who we are:

Intersect Studio is an experience-focused strategy and design firm. We believe people's lifestyles improve when places are highly designed for experience. Our passion is creating places people love through a fun and engaging design process.

We are an experienced yet emerging design firm specializing in commercial interior design, strategy, and architecture that reflects our commitment in designing inspiring places for people.

This position could be for you if:

- You have a passion to make the world a better place through great design.
- You are capable of leading the design process on multiple, overlapping projects.
- You welcome the opportunity to be part of the growth of an emerging design firm.
- You have a desire to learn and continuously improve - you love sharing, researching & learning from others.
- You thrive on creative collaboration, working towards specific goals, taking on challenges and finding creative solutions.
- You make things happen and follow through by turning thoughts into action.
- You have a Bachelor Degree in Interior Design with at least five years of commercial interior design experience.

What you can expect at Intersect:

Senior level interior design position with added benefit of working closely with team leaders. Collaborate on all interior architecture & design project phases, business development & marketing, and fostering a positive company culture.
