

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGNER

Intersect is seeking a creatively inspired architectural graduate who is ambitious & ready to learn about how to create places for people to be great and is equipped with the tools to jump in and help a team.

This potential cohort is passionate, hard working and focused, is eager to learn & teach and fits the strong Intersect culture of team-process-win big; every time, every day, for everyone.

This position could be for you if:

- You generally love people and are focused on learning how to better communicate with others.
- You have a passion to not just live in the world but to make it better and teach others Why it matters.
- You believe design is a process that can solve anything and reveals how things best work, but you may not yet have a strong design process.
- You already know how to use technology and are interested to continue to learn how technology tools can amplify communication.
- You are patient to understand but eager to achieve.
- You love organization and coordination and attention to detail.
- Your glasses are rose colored (maybe literally) but you are not afraid to lean in to difficult conversations with the goal of positive growth.
- You thrive in a passionately creative and highly collaborative open environment.
- You believe in the power of New Urbanist/ Urban design principles.
- You possess a professional degree in Architecture with at least a few years experience working in a design studio.

What you can expect at Intersect:

We are focused on aligning our cohorts' passions and skill sets with the needs of our clients; and ditto in reverse. You will help challenge the team to grow and achieve more each day as they learn and develop. You will bring passion to the pursuit of utilizing design as a powerful tool to celebrate stories for those we engage with. We will mentor you in our point of view about how we approach the world of design and you will have the opportunity to help direct the future. We partner with our team so we can all achieve success!

Full-time, Competitive wages & benefits, Relocation Assistance
