

WE'RE HIRING

interior design intern

Intersect is seeking a creatively inspired part-time interior design intern who is ambitious and ready to learn about how to create places for people to be great and is equipped with the tools to jump in and help our team.

A little bit about Intersect

Intersect Studio is an experience-based strategy, architecture, design and branding firm with studios in downtown Kalamazoo and Grand Rapids, MI.

We are dedicated to Happy, Healthy and Connected people and being amongst the best places to work.

Our studio is a highly collaborative and supportive environment. We carefully protect and nurture our culture to breed encouragement and competence in order to exceed expectations on exciting—and often demanding—architectural and design projects.

We're always looking for the best

If that's you, email connect@intersect-studio.com with the subject "Interior Design Intern" and tell us why you rock: what you've learned, how you live for today and what you want for the future.

This position could be for you if you:

- Generally love people and want to celebrate their stories using design as an engaging tool.
- You are enrolled in a Bachelor or Masters Interior Design degree program
- Have a passion to not just live in the world but to make it better and teach others why it matters.
- Already know how to use technology and are interested to continue to learn how tools can amplify communication.
- Are patient to understand but eager to achieve.
- Love organization, coordination and attention to detail.
- Thrive in a passionately creative and highly collaborative open environment.

What you can expect at Intersect:

- Collaborating with design team on a wide array of client and internal projects
- Assisting with the production of design exhibits
- Assisting with maintaining material and product libraries
- Researching products
- Generally supporting the team, learning and being a part of a professional design studio
